FACTORY SERVICE TRAINING SCHEDULE FOR THE YEAR 2010

Wascomat is pleased to announce the factory service training schedule for the year 2010. Knowledge of how to service Wascomat machines increases service personnel's efficiency, productivity and profits and inspires customer confidence in your company. Wascomat offers two levels of service seminars, providing the latest hands-on training in preventive maintenance service techniques and troubleshooting procedures on Wascomat washers and dryers. Attendees will also have the opportunity to meet Wascomat service and sales personnel.

LEVEL I SERVICE SEMINAR

This seminar covers the basics of servicing and maintaining Wascomat washers and dryers. It is designed for the storeowner, OPL laundry room operator and or the in-house serviceman. Attendees will learn how to perform day-to-day preventive maintenance and troubleshooting. Seminar begins at 8:30 am and ends at approximately 1:00 pm.

LEVEL II SERVICE SEMINAR

This advanced seminar covers in-depth service procedures on Wascomat washers and dryers. Prerequisites to attend this school are the ability to read a wiring diagram, proficiency in the use of test instruments such as an Ohmmeter, and experience in servicing laundry machines. Seminar begins at 8:30 am and ends at approximately 3:00 pm.
